

Retirement

Creative Planning for the Second Half of Life

This highly interactive workshop is designed to get participants thinking about the many creative retirement alternatives now available. Since no single answer is best for everyone, this workshop is an effort to prepare potential retirees for choosing options that best suit their individual situations. Please note: this is not a financial planning workshop.

In this program, participants will:

- Complete a Retirement Planning Self-Assessment
- Explore the concept of “whole person” retirement
- Begin creating individual retirement goals and identify methods/resources for achieving them
